ERRAZURIZ ICON WINES ACHIEVE CHILE'S HIGHEST SCORES IN STEVEN TANZER'S ANNUAL REPORT

Once again, Viña Errazuriz was one of the highest-ranked wineries in the Annual Report on Chilean wines from the American magazine Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar. The report entitled "Best New Releases from Chile" by Josh Reynolds, which appeared on the latest edition, features our Icon wines Kai, La Cumbre and Viñedo Chadwick (all from the 2009 vintage) achieving the highest score awarded to a Chilean wine by this publication, with 93 points each, while Don Maximiano Founder's Reserve 2009 obtained 92 points.

Additionally, our Specialties range was ranked at 90 points and above. This makes us very happy, because it is an important recognition to the innovative spirit that drives us to develop the exciting new cool-climate appellation, Aconcagua Costa. Aconcagua Costa. This is the newest addition to the portfolio, that we are just beginning to present to the world, and we are pleased that it has obtained impressive endorsements and reviews from its very first vintage!
