

Las Pizarras Chardonnay 2017: Overall Best White Wine of the year by Tim Atkin MW

Las Pizarras Chardonnay has undoubtedly consolidated as the Best White Wine of Chile in Tim Atkin MW's Chile Reports. In his 2019 Report recently published in mid-march, the 2017 vintage of Las Pizarras Chardonnay was hailed as Overall Best White Wine of the Year with remarkable 97 points, placing it alone at the top of all white wines tasted. "This brilliant Chardonnay wouldn't look out of place in a line up of Corton Charlemagnes. It is focused, precise and very long on the palate, it has thrilling minerality. Superb."

Francisco Baettig among South America's Top 10 Winemakers

Viña Errázuriz's Technical Director Francisco Baettig was chosen as one of South America's 10 best winemakers, in an article written by Tim Atkin MW and published in renowned UK magazine Decanter in March 23. "Widely regarded as one of the best oenologists in Chile, not least by his peer group (...) The scary thing for his competitors is that he's still improving. The Las Pizarras Chardonnay 2015 is the best example of the grape ever produced in South America, shimmering with Burgundian-like complexity."
